Walking Tour & Points of Interest

- Rawson Square - across from Festival Place. Colonial-style buildings and the bust of Sir Milo B. Butler Governor-General (1973-1979), and national hero during the struggle for independence.
- Parliament Square - Bay Street at Parliament. Historic government buildings waiting to be photographed. In the courtyard is a fanciful statue of Queen Victoria.
- Supreme Court - Located at the rear of Parliament Square. Judges and lawyers honor old traditions wearing wigs and robes during sessions of The Bahamas' Supreme Court.
- Nassau Public Library & Museum - The oldest building in Parliament Square. Built in 1798 as a jail and converted into a library and museum with old books and memorabilia in 1873.
- Trinity Methodist Church - Opened in 1865. Destroyed by a hurricane, it was rebuilt and remains open since 1869.
- Central Bank - The treasury department and center for banking and foreign exchange.
- St. Andrew's Presbyterian Kirk - Kirk (Scottish for church) is the second-oldest church edifice on New Providence and the third Christian congregation established in The Bahamas.
- Christopher Columbus Statue - a fanciful rendering of Christopher Columbus as he looks towards the harbor. The Bahamian island of San Salvador was his first landfall in the New World.
- Government House - A stately mansion just west of Duke Street between Blue Hill Road and Market Street serves as the official residence of the Governor-General, the Queen's appointed representative.
- National Art Gallery - The yellow mansion on Queen Street was originally known as Villa Doyle, built by Chief Justice William Henry Doyle in the 1860s. Today, it houses a fine collection of Bahamian art.
- St. Francis Xavier Catholic Cathedral - The first mass was offered in 1886. It is the oldest, continually operating Catholic Church in The Bahamas.
- Green Orthodox Church - Situated on West Street, the striking white church trimmed in blue was built by Greek residents who helped develop the country's sponge industry.
- United States Embassy - On Queen Street near Marlborough Street. The fully-operational embassy representing the United States and its citizens.
- British Colonial Hilton Hotel - Built by Henry Flagler in the early 1900s. The land on which it sits was the site of Fort Nassau, built in 1697. It protected the harbor entrance and was the site where notorious pirates were hanged.
- Christ Church Cathedral - The official Cathedral of The Bahamas, built of stone and opened in 1753. The beautiful cathedral is located at the corner of George Street and King Street.
- Nassau Straw Market - The new marketplace is a "must visit" for everyone. On Bay Street between Market Street and Frederick Street, it is where you barter your best deal for souvenirs, local art and other goods.

Island Shopping

Nassau's reputation for duty-free shopping is legendary. Savvy shoppers have made their way here for decades seeking duty-free savings on name-brand watches, jewelry, leather goods, crystal and china. In addition to the normal savings (usually more than expected) you also pay no sales tax. If you want to save even more, shop smart and compare values. Don't be afraid to bargain for your best price. Also remember... always pay with a credit card when possible. The retail shops recommended below have ads on this map showing locations, telephone numbers and other information to help you find them.

Delcud Jewelers... is where you'll find a luxury collection of white, fancy yellow, pink and blue diamond designs. Check out the unique, one-of-a-kind designed from the Delcud Collection. They also offer guaranteed certified appraisals with a USA based customer service center.

Festival Place... at Prince George Wharf celebrates Bahamian culture with lively vendors in colorful shops with gingerbread trim. Here is where you'll find high-end crafts and goods such as Hart Taylor handbags with luxurious lining and beadwork, hand-rolled soaps and handcrafted jewelry. There's an interesting food court and several kiosks where local foods and snacks are enjoyed.

John Bull... for almost a century, John Bull has been the premier retailer of luxury goods and services in The Bahamas. They represent some of the world's finest and most sought-after designers of fragrances, jewelry, timepieces, leather goods, cameras and cosmetics. Boasting a full line of renowned brands, you'll find Cartier, Coach, David Yurman, Gucci, Tiffany, Van Cleef & Arpels and more. John Bull is also the exclusive retailer for Rolex in The Bahamas.

Nassau's Straw Market... No visit to Nassau would be complete without a stop at this one-of-a-kind market place. Located on Bay Street in the heart of town, it is famous throughout the islands for the quality and variety of crafts and hand-work found there. Browsing and exploring the vast array of goods and crafts is only half the fun. The jocular character while haggling for your best price make the experience priceless. It's truly worth a visit.

Solomon's Mines... one of the original duty-free merchants in Nassau, showcasing elegant timepieces, stylish leather goods, porcelain collectibles, an unmatched collection of stainless steel items and jewelry designed with diamonds, rubies and other gemstones. Fashionable timepieces include Anne Klein, Armitron, Guess, Nautica, Philippe Chariol and Skagen. Fine jewelry features Majoria, Gabriel & Co. and Candela. Don't miss the stunning collection of Lladro porcelain figures, Lalique collectibles and the display Kalifano's life-sized globes made from semi-precious gemstones.

Via Mare... this unique boutique is where you'll find stylish, one-of-a-kind imported designs. Sporting a seashore lingo, the trendy collection is fashionable, yet affordable. On display is a very nice collection of designer jeans, sporty sundresses, sheer tunics and flowery blouses in silks, cottons and lace.

More shopping ideas... Del Sol has an interesting line of clothing and accessories that come to life with color when exposed to sunlight (kids love them). For biker junkies there's a Harley Davidson store with souvenir apparel bearing the HD logo from The Bahamas. Venetian Jewelers boasts the largest collection of diamonds highlighted with colored diamonds by Sophia Fiori. Columbian Emeralds International displays an exquisite collection of jewelry with emeralds and other gemstones. Shakeez may be the brightest idea for souvenir t-shirts, bikinis, hoodies and colorful floral shirts. Elizabeth at Bay Marketplace has several nice stores sporting imported European fashions. The Ole Nassau stores have a wonderful selection with excellent pricing on duty-free liquors, wines and cognacs.

Dining & Entertainment

ANCHORAGE RESTAURANT at Fish Fry... is the recommended place to go if you're looking for fresh seafood. Grouper, snapper, lobster, conch and shrimp are cooked order in a casual waterfront ambiance. Upstairs the sunset is picture-perfect. Downstairs, the bar serves cool tropical drinks.

AQUA RESTAURANT... in the British Colonial Hilton serves Nassau's most lavish lunch buffet. Their evening menu is a fine selection of tempting cuisine prepared with an international flair. Adjoining the restaurant Bullion Bar is popular for drinks and music.

BLI RESTAURANT & BAR... is Nassau's newest hot-spot for contemporary foodies. The charming waterfront setting oozes of casual elegance. The menu celebrates a collection of original seafood recipes, Mediterranean classics, local favorites, decadent desserts, fine wines and cocktails.

CAFÉ SKANS... on Bay Street is a family-owned restaurant known for Greek and Bahamian specialties. Breakfast is the best in town serving fluffy pancakes, French toast, omelets and local favorites. Lunch includes appetizing daily specials, fresh seafood, Bahamian-fried chicken, gyros, conch fritters, plump sandwiches and authentic Greek salads.

DUNKIN DONUTS... America's all day, everyday stop for coffee, baked goods, sandwiches and soups is here. The same quality you crave at home is now found downtown across from the Hilton Hotel, on Paradise Island next to Anthony's Grill, and at the airport's departure lounge.

GREEN PARROT NASSAU... just west of the bridge on East Bay is best-known for its authentic Bahamian cuisine. Tasty barbecue chicken, smoked ribs, fresh fish, cracked conch, chili-lime shrimp, delicious T-bone steaks, boutique wine lounge and the great view of Nassau Harbour.

OLIVE'S MEZA GRILL... a trendy hotspot in Cable Beach with excellent Greek and Mediterranean cuisine. Lunch favorites include classic Greek tapas, gyros, spanakopita, a selection of Panni sandwiches and great burgers. Dinner favorites start with "meze" (tasty appetizers) followed by roasted meats, grilled fish, marinated calamari and a nice bottle of wine.

STARBUCKS... a beacon for coffee-lovers everywhere, is the premier roaster and retailer of specialty coffee worldwide. All eight locations serve premium Tazo tea, fine pastries, freshly made sandwiches salads and other delectable treats. Visit us for a full and rewarding coffee house experience. On Paradise Island: Marina Village, Coral Towers and The Reef at Atlantis. In Nassau: Charlotte Street, Palmdale Harbour Bay Plaza, Wyndham Casino and Cable Cottage.

TALKING STICK RESTAURANT & BAR... in the Towne Hotel Bay Plaza, Wyndham Casino and Cable Cottage. The club-like atmosphere is comfortable, stylish and well-lit. Guest DJs spin top-40 hits until the wee hours while hotel guests, cruise staff and locals enjoy the evening with music and dancing.

TIKI BIKINI BEACH BAR... west of the Hilton on Junkanoo Beach, this colorful tiki bar is a popular "hot spot" with visitors. Relax and chill out with cool things such as cold beers, frozen drinks, chilled coconut water and snacks.

PARADISE ISLAND...

ANTHONY'S GRILL... is an excellent choice all day long, especially for families seeking a kid-friendly menu. Only steps from Atlantis and open all day, everything is moderately priced with a yummy selection of entrees including their famous baby back ribs, Bahamian seafood platters, Black Angus burgers, pastas dishes, the island's best pizza and delicious desserts.

GREEN PARROT AT HURRICANE HOLE... is the island's popular gathering place, especially at "happy hour." Visitors, yachtsmen and locals gather for authentic Bahamian cooking, conch fritters, tasty fish sandwiches, juicy burgers, cold beer and favorite cocktails.

JOHNNY ROCKETS... in Marina Village is all about their famous hot-off-the-grill burgers, grilled hot dogs, thick milk shakes, hot apple pie with ice cream, and a fun-loving staff that entertains while you dine. Good food and fun for all. Open late.

MARINA VILLAGE... is an amazing experience for shopping, dining and day dreaming. Mega yachts rest peacefully next to world-class shopping and dining. Designer boutiques, duty-free shops and gourmet restaurants such as Blimini Road, Café Martineque, Carmine's, Seafood Steakhouse and Murray's Delicatessen line the village walkways.

QUINOS... is the place for freshly-made subs, salads, soups and sandwiches. Take away service is perfect for beach-goers and boat excursions. Spice it up with a dash of Quinos hot sauce. Locations in Marina Village at Atlantis and the US departure lounge at the airport.
